

The Department of Slavic and East European Languages and Cultures and
The Russian and East European Institute

announce a

Memorial to Nina Perlina

Sunday, October 20, 2019
1:00–3:00 pm

At the Global and International Studies Building
355 N Jordan Ave, Bloomington IN 47405
Atrium

(Open area on the first floor between east and west wings)

The program will consist of reminiscences and appreciations of Nina Perlina by friends, colleagues, former students, and admirers, followed by a lunch reception.

Anyone who wishes to speak is asked to notify George Fowler, IU Slavic Chair, at gowler@indiana.edu. All well-wishers are invited to attend, regardless of whether they choose to speak about their recollections or not.

If former colleagues, friends, and students of Nina's cannot attend but would like to express their thoughts on this occasion, we invite them to record a short video (using webcam or phone) and send it to us, and we will arrange for playback at the ceremony.
